

Benevity is the leader in corporate giving.

Benevity helps nonprofits to access support from 650+ of the world's Fortune 1000 companies from around the world. These 18 million employees are able to give to over 2 million nonprofits through giving, volunteering and grantmaking.

The benefit of using Benevity is most corporations often match the employee's donations (money & talents), resulting in a larger donation to the nonprofit.

How to know if your company has partnered with benevity?

1. Check with your HR department if your company participates.
2. If your company does participate, search for Twenty-One Senses in the system.
3. Use your company's Benevity portal to make your donations and track your volunteer hours.
